

RANDY SANTOS

Randy Santos is a photographer whose artistic vision and unique personal perspective on the world around him has established him as one of the Washington DC area's preeminent photographers. A native Washingtonian with over 30 years of photographic experience, Randy's work reflects his passion and drive for creative self-expression, a mastery of the medium of photography, and his love for the architectural beauty and history found in his hometown. Randy's distinctive work is regularly featured in art installations, corporate and hospitality environments, government facilities, and innumerable print and electronic media worldwide.

In addition to being an artist, Randy is also a husband and father. Randy has established a business model that enables him to make family life a priority while enjoying the aesthetic and personal fulfillment that his work brings.

You may view Randy's extensive online archive of imagery at <http://www.dcstockphotos.com/>

Autumn Leaves #38, #39, #43

UV Direct Print to Birch Veneer Wood Panels

Salt Marsh Pier, Chincoteague Island, VA

Phototex Wall Mural

Locomotive, Baltimore, MD

UV Direct Print to 3mm Brushed Silver Aluminum composite panel

Shrimp Boat Detail, Chincoteague Island, VA

UV Direct print to 6mm White Komatex